Managing Generation Z

How to Recruit, Onboard, Develop, and Retain the Newest Generation in the Workplace

Robin Paggi and Kat Clowes

Expert advice on attracting, training, managing, retaining, and succeeding with America's newest generation of hard-working, tech-savvy employees. Like having an expert HR manager at your fingertips.

In Managing Generation Z, Robin Paggi, a veteran HR manager, and Kat Clowes, an educational consultant who has worked with hundreds of Gen Z'ers, join forces to give employers and managers a practical, easy-to-understand guide to the new generation defining the future of work. Based on Clowes's in-depth knowledge of Gen Z habits and Paggi's real-world experience of how generational miscommunications can cause expensive personnel problems, Managing Generation Z gives managers at all levels a plan for getting quality work from Gen Z employees while avoiding cultural clashes at the office.

What They Don't Teach Teens

Life Safety Skills for Teens and the Adults Who Care for Them

Jonathan Cristall, Esq.

What They Don't Teach Teens is the up-to-date safety guide for 21st century teens and their parents, giving proven strategies for self-defense against the new dangers of modern adolescence. Author Jonathan Cristall, an experienced prosecutor with the Los Angeles City Attorney's Office, has worked extensively with at-risk youth and has seen first-hand the risks teens run today. Cristall shows teens how to protect themselves and gives parents techniques for talking to teens about how to stay safe.

What They Don't Teach Teens gives sound advice on physical safety (sexual assault, interacting with police, dating violence, street safety, situational awareness, gun violence, and mass shootings), digital safety (permanence of internet data, sexting, revenge porn, and cyberbullying), and emotional safety (stopping sexual harassment and learning how to say no).

Be the Awesome Man

A Handbook for Young Men in Pursuing Happiness

Dennis Gazarek

A diagnosis and a prescription for a generation of young men in crisis, Be the Awesome Man is a must-read guide for young men who want to achieve lasting success and personal happiness.

Young men are underachieving in unprecedented numbers. More and more young men are not attaining standard benchmarks of maturity, such as entering and graduating from higher education, finding a career, establishing their financial independence, and living on their own. Be the Awesome Man approaches the challenges of being a young man from a unique and practical perspective. Written in a sensible, easy-to-read format, Be the Awesome Man, delves into the roots of male underachievement and provides practical guidance for young men and their parents, teachers, ministers, coaches, and other mentors.

Boneheads and Brainiacs

Heroes and Scoundrels of the Nobel Prize in Medicine

Moira Dolan, MD

Even the greatest minds in medicine have been terribly, terribly wrong. The inventor of the lobotomy won a Nobel prize in medicine for destroying his patients' brains. Another Nobel laureate thought malaria cured syphilis. The discoverer of anaphylactic shock also researched the spirit world and ESP.

Boneheads and Brainiacs profiles the winners of the Nobel Prize in Medicine from 1901 to 1950—a surprisingly diverse group of racists, cranks, and opportunists, as well as heroes, geniuses, and selfless benefactors of humanity. Forget all the ivory tower stereotypes of white-coated doctors finding miracle cures. Boneheads and Brainiacs reveals the messy human reality behind medical progress, in a highly entertaining book written for the ordinary reader.

The Power of Positive Aging

Successfully Coping with the Inconveniences of Aging

David Lereah, PhD

Americans are unprepared for aging. The Power of Positive Aging is a training course to help you survive and thrive through the greatest challenge of your life—growing old.

Based on life lessons learned during Lereah's successful battle against cancer, The Power of Positive Aging gives readers a practical program of mental and spiritual exercises teaching mindfulness and acceptance, plus strategies for pursuing a balanced life and seeking and accepting social support.

Based on timeless spiritual (but completely practical) principles, The Power of Positive Aging presents a concrete program of specific actions to put these principles into use in everyday life.

The Backpack

A Wounded Police Officer's Struggle with the Burden All Cops Share

Brandon S. Hultink

Wounded in the line of duty and paralyzed, police officer Brandon Hultink made an amazing journey from despair to hope. "I can still remember the taste of metal in my mouth from the barrel of the gun ..." After the shoot-out that put him in a wheelchair, police officer Brandon Hultink was ready to put an end to it all. In his frank and compelling memoir The Backpack, Hultink tells how he came to the worst moment of his life, and how faith in God and the humility to accept help brought him out of depression, addiction, and the wheelchair and back into successful life.

But Hultink's story isn't his alone. It is also the story of the thousands of police officers who struggle with depression and post-traumatic stress. An intensely personal story of anguish and survival, The Backpack offers hope to everyone—police and civilian alike—who struggles with depression and pain.

400 Things Cops Know

Street-Smart Lessons from a Veteran Patrolman

Adam Plantinga

ISBN: 978-1-61035-217-8

PRICE: $14.95

PAGES: 194

FORMAT: Paperback

PUB DATE: October 2014

400 Things Cops Know shows police work on the inside, from the viewpoint of the regular cop on the beat — a profession that can range from rewarding to bizarre to terrifying, all within the course of a single eight-hour shift. Written by veteran police sergeant Adam Plantinga, 400 Things Cops Know brings the reader into life the way cops experience it — a life of danger, frustration, occasional triumph and plenty of grindingly hard routine work.

Could It Be B12? 2nd Edition

An Epidemic of Misdiagnoses

Sally M. Pacholok, R.N. And
Jeffery J. Stuart, D.O.

ISBN: 978-1-884995-69-9

PRICE: $16.95

PAGES: 324

FORMAT: Paperback

PUB DATE: January 2011

It's a public health crisis that the public doesn't know exists. Millions suffer from it, but few are diagnosed. Left untreated, it can cause permanent, crippling nerve damage—and too many patients don't get treatment until it's too late.

Could It Be B12? uncovers the shocking prevalence of B12 deficiency, its frequent misdiagnosis, and how little the medical profession has done to effectively treat this common disorder.

Sitting Kills, Moving Heals

How Everyday Movement Will Extend Your Life, and Exercise Alone Won't

Dr. Joan Vernikos

ISBN: 978-1-61035-018-1

PRICE: $14.95

PAGES: 130

FORMAT: Paperback

PUB DATE: November 2011

This groundbreaking medical work demonstrates how modern sedentary lifestyles contribute to poor health, obesity, and diabetes, and how health can be dramatically improved by continuous, low-intensity, movement that challenges the force of gravity. Written for everyone who spends most of their lives sitting in chairs, at desks, and in cars.

Tears of Honor

James A. Ardaiz

A sweeping novel of history, war, and courage in the face of injustice, Tears of Honor tells the story of the heroic Japanese-American soldiers who fought against Nazi tyranny in Europe, while their families were imprisoned in America.

Sammy and Freddy are two all-American boys in the summer of 1941, dreaming of becoming professional baseball players and maybe asking a girl to the senior prom. But when war comes, Sammy Miyaki, Freddy Shiraga, and their families are seen as enemy aliens, not Americans. Taken from their homes in rural central California and placed in internment camps, the boys decide that the only way to prove their loyalty to America is to join the Army.

Assigned to an all-Japanese-American combat unit fighting against the Germans, Sammy and Freddy are placed under the command of the combat-hardened Lieutenant Young Oak Kim (a real-life person and one of the most highly decorated American soldiers in history), who leads them through some of the fiercest fighting of the war.

Upon this Rock

David Eugene Perry

Intrigue, terrorism, history, art, and the secrets of the Church collide in a relentless page-turning thriller.

An American couple in Italy investigate the suicide of a cleric in the picturesque Italian city of Orvieto, and find themselves plunged into a conspiracy that may destroy the Catholic Church. In the stunning thriller Upon This Rock, San Francisco business executive Lee Maury and his husband Adriano come to Orvieto to soak in the city's beauty and rich history, but Lee becomes fascinated with a local tragedy, the suicide one year earlier of Deacon Andrea, a much-loved candidate for the priesthood.

Growing obsessed with learning the truth behind Andrea's death, Lee and Adriano stumble upon a conspiracy of terrorism, human trafficking, and a plot to plant a nuclear dirty bomb in the tomb of St. Peter. Before they know it, Lee and Adriano's dream vacation becomes a race to save innocent lives—and not get killed in the process.

The Sea Glass Murders

Timothy Cole

A headless corpse in a dumpster unites a small-town cop and a formidable retired lady spy to track a killer in a wealthy New England neighborhood.

A headless corpse burned to a crisp might be found in any dumpster in any city in America, but not in the aristocratic Gold Coast of Westport, Connecticut, home to the wealthy and powerful. Westport cop Tony DeFranco dutifully collects evidence, knowing that the State Police will take over the case. But when the State investigator covers up the murder, DeFranco starts a rogue investigation.

DeFranco forms an alliance with retired CIA officer Dasha Petrov, whose elderly, ladylike appearance masks a lifetime's experience with violence and deception. As the body count mounts, DeFranco relies on Dasha's insights and skills acquired over decades of global troubleshooting to stop a killer operating in the center of American wealth and power. A glimpse at the sordid underside of money, position, and power, The Sea Glass Murders is an action-oriented mystery with an immersive, fast-paced plot and intriguing characterization.

As the Crow Dies

A Segal and Rudisill Murder Mystery

Kenneth Butcher

When a body is found in the River Arts District of Asheville, North Carolina, the man on the case is police lieutenant Ira Segal, recently returned to semi-active duty after being shot in the line of duty. Segal, who carries Elmore Leonard paperbacks as security blankets, isn't sure he's up to investigating a murder, and neither is his partner, military veteran and local roller derby star Sgt. Dinah "Dinosaur" Rudisill.

Segal discovers that the victim worked for the mysterious start-up company Creatures 2.0, which trains animals to acquire uncanny capabilities. Creature 2.0's eccentric founder, Francis Elah has gone missing, and no one can find him, not even Elah's top client, the Office of Naval Intelligence.

Witty, engaging and fast paced, As the Crow Dies is a mystery that veers from norm in unexpectedly delightful ways.

Let's Carve!

Safe and Fun Woodcarving Projects for Kids

Robin Trudel

A safe, fun, and creative introduction to woodcarving for children age 4 and up. Your child's eyes will light up when they see what they can make with the beautiful and fun projects in Let's Carve!, a safe and easy introduction to the art of woodcarving for kids age 4 and up. Requiring only a few tools, inspiration and adult supervision, the projects in Let's Carve! are kid-safe and designed for beginners, but your children will be able to complete these age-appropriate designs all by themselves.

From simple clothespin chompers to string puppets to a waddling push penguin, each of the 16 core projects in Let's Carve! includes a basic version and an advanced version for kids who want more of a challenge. Many of the projects also provide alternate ideas that can be applied to new projects.
